

photos, top to bottom:
Pamela Hanson, Stephen Shore

Maggie Steber

top to bottom: Zanele Muholi,
Jean-Pierre Laffont, Lynn Goldsmith

top to bottom: Joel Sartore, Peter Magubane, Al Bell, Edward Burtynsky, David Hurn

LUCIE FOUNDATION

LUCIE FOUNDATION

© Eli Reed, 2011 Honoree - Achievement in Documentary Photography

© Robert Leslie

© Robert Leslie

The Lucie Foundation, is a 501(c) 3 non profit, charitable foundation. The foundation presents year-round programming to support photographers. The signature program of the Lucie Foundation is the Lucie Awards. The Lucie Awards is an biannual gala ceremony that celebrates master photographers and their contributions to the field of photography. Honorees are determined each year by the Lucie Awards advisory board. Other programs include The Lucie Impact Awards, The Lucie Photo Book Prize, Scholarship Program, Open Calls, exhibitions, photographer talks and workshops.

The House of Lucie is the physical home for the Lucie Foundation and are contemporary photography spaces showcasing the extraordinary work of the Lucie Award Honorees, as well as discovering and sharing the work of local and international photographic talent. Additionally, the House of Lucie centers for photography hold the permanent collection for the Lucie Award Honorees photographic work as well as serving as public spaces for rotating exhibitions, workshops, lectures, and events to promote photography to as wide an audience as possible. Currently The House of Lucie is located in Hungary, Italy, France, Greece and Thailand.

OUR THREE-FOLD MISSION: TO HONOR MASTER
PHOTOGRAPHERS, DISCOVER AND CULTIVATE EMERGING
PHOTOGRAPHERS, AND PROMOTE THE APPRECIATION OF
PHOTOGRAPHY WORLDWIDE.

PROGRAMS & EVENTS

THE LUCIE FOUNDATION WILL ADVANCE A NUMBER OF PROGRAMS, EVENTS, AND INITIATIVES IN 2026. THIS LIST INCLUDES:

© Robert Leslie

Lucie Awards

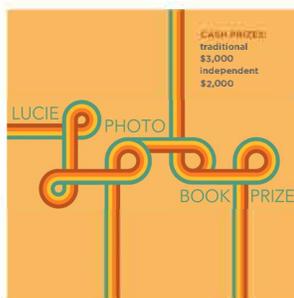

Lucie Foundation is proud to present the biannual Lucie Awards ceremony. The awards evening honors legendary photographers for their career achievements, acknowledges the creatives in the field who supports photography and announces two cash prizes presented by the Lucie Foundation's sister effort, The International Photography Awards (IPA) competition.

Lucie Scholarships

We invite your company to become a sponsor of a Lucie Foundation Scholarships. The mission of the Program is to discover, cultivate, and support emerging and established talent with vision and dynamic ideas that challenge and progress the art form of still photography. Our support of photographers is broad, from Fine Art to Documentary and Photojournalism, to digital and film-based works. One recipient is selected in each scholarship categories to receive the award money to create or continue work on a project. Honorable mentions and Short Lists are presented online for each dynamic category giving promotion to worthy photographers applying for the scholarships. In addition, the recipients will receive support, prizes, portfolio reviews and promotion through the Lucie Foundation site.

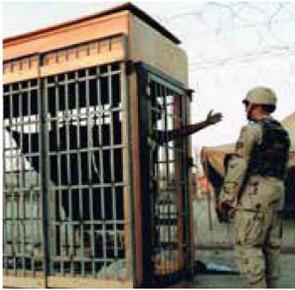

© Pang Hai

Lucie Photo Book Prize

The Lucie Foundation is dedicated to celebrating all forms of photography in print and online. The Lucie Photo Book Prize is a juried competition open to a diversity of book submissions- from traditionally published to prototypes, hand-made books to zines. The awards are presented to photographers, editors, curators or publishers. The Lucie Foundation is proud to offer two cash prizes to the top two finalists for their outstanding work - one Traditional $3,000 cash prize and one Independent $2,000 cash prize.

©John Moore

Lucie Talks

The Lucie Foundation hosts intimate conversations, online and live, including a series of talks called “The Story behind the Image”. These talks promote the appreciation of photography and further the understanding that images can impact social change and our world.

Lucie Open Calls

The Lucie Foundation Open Call Competitions are thematic and promote the appreciation of photography worldwide. Photographers are promoted and awarded prizes, showcased in online galleries and receive recognition. An esteemed panel of judges are sought to review the work often giving portfolio reviews to the award winners. Most Lucie Foundation Open Calls are in support of other non-profit organizations in and out of the photography field based on current needs and requests. Each year, Lucie Foundation also partners with a youth-centered organization to hold a completely free open call for photographers 18 and under.

©Shawn Fender

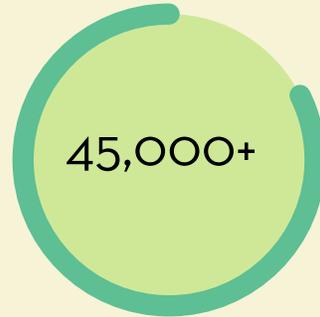

House of Lucie

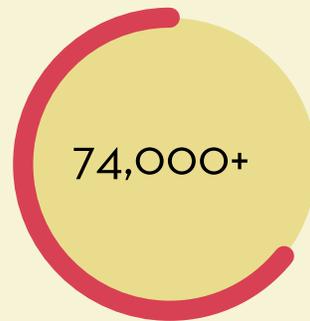

House of Lucie was established in 2016 by Hossein Farmani as contemporary photography spaces to showcase the extraordinary work of the Lucie Award Honorees, as well as to discover, collect and share the work of local and international photographic talent. House of Lucie is dedicated to excellence in the art of photography and actively embraces changes in the photographic market building on cultural cues and working with emerging artists. Additionally the house of Lucie Centers for Photography hold the permanent collection for the Lucie Award Honorees photographic work as well as a public space for rotating exhibitions, workshops, lectures, and events to promote photography to as wide an audience as possible.

LUCIE FOUNDATION REACH

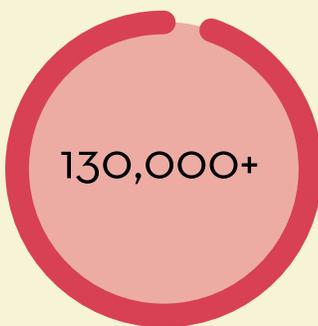

WEBSITE | SOCIAL MEDIA | EMAIL MARKETING | PRESS RELEASES | MONTHLY NEWSLETTERS

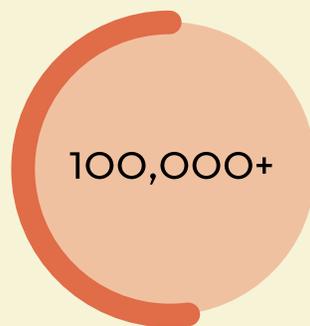

LUCIE FOUNDATION SOCIAL MEDIA FOLLOWING ACROSS FACEBOOK AND INSTAGRAM 45,000+

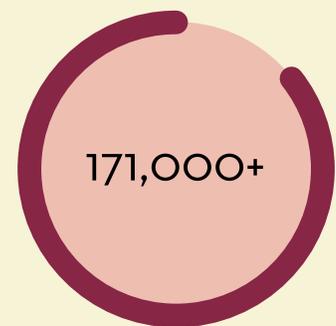

LUCIE FOUNDATION EMAIL REACH 74,000+

FACEBOOK: 130,000+

INSTAGRAM: 100,000+

EMAIL: 171,000+

LUCIE FOUNDATION AND OUR SISTER COMPANAY
IPA (INTERNATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY AWARDS)

LUCIE FOUNDATION

Lucie Foundation is a 501 c 3 non-profit charitable foundation.

OUR THREE-FOLD MISSION:
TO HONOR MASTER PHOTOGRAPHERS,
DISCOVER AND CULTIVATE
EMERGING PHOTOGRAPHERS, AND PROMOTE THE APPRECIATION OF
PHOTOGRAPHY WORLDWIDE.

Contact Information:

Alice Dison, Director: adison@luciefoundation.org
Theo Carol, Program Manager: tcarol@luciefoundation.org

P.O. Box 292281, Los Angeles, California 90029